My CHIRGWIN Ancestors

First Generation

1. Edward CHIRGWIN was born on 1 Jan 1610 in Maddern (Madron), Cornwall and died on 17 Oct 1723 in Sancreed, Cornwall, England. Another name for Edward was Edward CHURGUIN.

General Notes: Most of the Chirgwin descendants were born in and around Cornwall, but not all places are known and so are shown as unknown. Original record shows surname as Churguin for marriage. Two marriage references on the I.G.I. on the same date and place for Edward. Batch 7333412 Serial 37 shows a spouse of Christian..... as her name. Batch A458707 serial 0182 shows Cheston Edwards. From 1550-1720/1790 many of the coastal people of south Eng. around Lands End to Wales esp. Lundy island were pirates. No reference to the Chirgwin name is listed, but a Sir John Hawkins and son Richard (1560-1622) were pirates. Other names include Killigrew, Tremayne, Henry Robarts of Devon, Thomas Cavendish, Henry Morgan of Glamorganshire (1635-1688) b. in Llanrhymney, William Dampier, Howell Davis of Pembroke. Another version of the surname is Churgwyn, and others all coming from the Cornish chy gour gwyn meaning house of the fair/white

THE HISTORY OF THE SECRET SERVICE DURING THE REBELLION. By General L. C. Baker, late Provost Marshal and Chief Detective of the War Department.—Jones Brother & Co., Philadelphia, Pa., Cincinnati, Ohio, and Davenport, Iowa.

There has been so much said for and against the late Chief Detective of the War Department, that we are sure the great American public will accord a most hearty welcome to this record of the labors and experiences of this famous, praised, traduced, dreaded and loved official. He has thrown down the gauntlet to his enemies, and gainsayers by thus boldly making public his varied and hitherto necessary mysterious official career. To Gen. Baker was entrusted at this stage of the war an office of great delicacy, the execution of which required a more than ordinary amount of tact, shrewdness, and boldness. During the progress of hostilities General Baker's course of action gave perfect satisfaction; but when the Johnsonian, "My Policy" was inaugurated, the loyal Chief of the Detective Bureau was not found tractable; he persisted, despite of winks and nods to expose the infamous system of pardon brokerage. He pointed out the lovely daughters of the South who eagerly took up this new profession, and he named men high in office who were not proof against the blandishments of these new INFORMATION DESIRED.—An exchange paper has received a letter from Fredricksburgh, Ohio, written by a young man who solicits information as to the whereabouts of his father and step-mother. He says:

"I have a father, step-mother and uncles and aunts in Wisconsin, or were there fourteen or fifteen years since, when I ran off from my folks when a small boy, since which time I have not heard from them. My father's name was William Watcher, and my step-mother's name is Catharine."

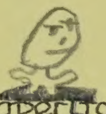
WHAT TO DO:



Use the empty part of this paper to solve these problems. Then tell us what the letters in each equation stand for. Use these tips to help you:

- Look at the whole problem. Then look at each column of numbers separately.
- Notice how many times each letter appears.
- Don't forget that there may be regrouping in some problems
- Don't confuse the letter O with zero.
- Don't be afraid to experiment!

BENNETT HISTORY--CORNWALL TO MINERAL POINT

Submitted by Jancie (Sleep) Ronnerud, Darlington.

My great-great grandfather, James Bennett Sr., was born in Cornwall, England about 1807. He married Mary Record, also of Cornwall, and in 1837 they and their four children, John, William, Mary Ann, and James Jr. came to America going directly to Mineral Point, Wi. According to family legend, there were sixteen Bennett families, all related, who came to America on the same boat.

Since James had been reared a miner, it was only natural that he begin mining in Mineral Point. Mary, who was not used to pioneer life, the Indians and wild animals that were part of the barely discovered wilderness, wanted to go back to Cornwall. Unfortunately, for her, Mr. Pilling, who bought James' ore, was very short of cash and had to pay for the ore by turning over a quarter section of land he owned to James Sr. Just as so many things are governed by chance, so were Mary's dreams of returning to her homeland. Instead, Section 33 Town 3 Range 3, East in Willow Springs Township, Lafayette Co., became the Bennett homestead and remained so for many years to come. The land was heavily timbered but eventually was cleared through the hard work of James Jr. and became good farmland.

James Bennett Sr., was an industrious, hard working man with a very strong constitution. Shortly after locating on the farm, he bought a lead mine and walked to work each morning, did a hard day's work, and walked back home at night, a round trip of 16 miles. The mine was quite prosperous after a time so he moved back to Mineral Point so that he and his family might be close to the mine. After several years they returned to the farm and he built a stone house where he and his wife lived the rest of their lives.

John, the eldest worked in a mine in Galena and died when he was about nineteen. It was said the cause of death was the "foul air" of the mine. Mary Ann married Charles Cox, and after his death, married Zacharias Warren. She died in April, 1881. William went to California with his father shortly after the discovery of gold there. After they returned to Wisconsin, he traveled West and his whereabouts were unknown from that time. James Jr. went to California in 1854 and returned in 1857 after his experiences in the West. He married Hannah Jeffrey, a native of England in June 1863. They had six children: William G., Nellie, Robert, Byron, Phillippa, and James. Nellie first married Wm. John King and after his death married Ben Mitchell. Phillippa married Henry Sleep. Catherine Jane, also a daughter of James & Mary, was born in Mineral Point and married a Burg.

Note--much of this information was taken from THE COMMEMORATIVE BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD of the COUNTIES OF GRANT, IOWA and LAFAYETTE, WI. This book was ordered by Byron Bennett, Jan. 11, 1901 at the price of $15.00.

Subject: Camborne & Bennett

Hi all,
I am researching the Bennett family for a book on Samuel Bennett, born Camborne, 1815, parents Christopher and Ann, nee Carthew. Samuel came to NSW in 1841 to work for Stephens and Stokes, the then owners of the Sydney Morning Herald, where he worked for seventeen years as head printer. He later bought the Empire, and started theEvening News, and The Town and Country Journal. The Evening News was published in Sydney until 1930.

I have talked myself into the necessity of seeing the real Cornwall and would like to do some homework before I leave in mid January to spent a month in Cornwall. I would love to communicate with some kind person, preferably living in or near Camborne who may be able to assist with Camborne history or where I might find it, any possible surviving Bennetts, and what best to see while I am there. I am also interested in the South West Way, horses and historic houses. I am a (middle aged) occupational therapist who has returned to university to do a BA in Australian history.
Any pointers in the right direction or help would be greatly appreciated and can be reciprocated in NSW in required.
Very hot and sunny in the northern tablelands of NSW this morning, cicadas making a fearful racket already.
Kind regards, Georgina Stephen Chaseling, nee Bennett, Armidale, NSW. researching, Bennett, Michell, Carthew, (Vivian) in Camborne.

John A Bosanco

Here is a little tid bit I came across on John Bosanco. It was told that he practiced witchcraft and some say was Demon possessed. He was able to move objects without touching them and have them slam into walls. It was told that his wife and Children were afraid of him. They say it can be passed down 4 generations.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

There is no mistaking the fact that fall weather has begun.

John Bosanko has sold his house and lots to J. S. Miller and will move onto a farm.

Soule and Haley were around in the interest of democracy the latter part of the week.

Mrs. O. C. Foster's father, Elder Jamison, spent Sunday here and filled the M. E. pulpit at the morning service.

There will be no school Thursday and Friday of this week, in order that the pupils may go to Sioux City on the corn palace train.

Edward Everett Hale: I have never known any one save Mrs. Kemble who seems to me to have the same remarkable dramatic power.

The time for the speial train to leave Sioux City is postponed from 7:20 to 9:30 in order that the illuminations may be seen by the visitors before leaving the city.

Consumers of coal will not fail to note that the fact of its being on the free list does not keep the price down and does not prevent the organization of trusts to control the price.

Wendell Phillips in 1880: Mrs. Dainty came to Boston last winter almost unknown. She captured us all by her charming artless art and went away a friend whom we delight to honor.

The young republicans of Sioux City have formed a republican club with Fred Gunkle president, and E. H. but the roster of officers has not been handed in. The older ones should be doing something for the good of the party.

We received copies of the Ohio State Journal containing an illustrated account of the great national encampment at Columbus, kindly sent us by J. A. Bunn, while there. They are on file for those to look over who wish to get an idea of the affair.

A pass book found on the street by Mrs. J. W. Sargent, is at this office for its owner. Among other things it has the following sentence written in it said to contain all the letters of the alahabet without repetition: "J. V. Phlew and Q. Z. Gib struck my fox."

L. G. Richardson and wife returned this week from their trip to the encampment. They went to the old home at Marietta, which Mr. Richardson had not seen for twenty-seven years, and visited Wm Richardson, who is known to the early settlers here. The good intentions of Wm in sending us some samples of Ohio productions are appreciated, even if the baggage man did wreck his hopes and our present.

The school board has rented the lower room in the G. A. R. building for a primary room and elected Miss Maud Dewey teacher. School will begin next Monday. This will relieve the primary and intermediate rooms of their crowded condition and permit all the little ones to attend school all the time. The necessity for an addition of several new rooms to the present building is apparent.

Reynolds Jones & Co. have bought the McKim portion of Union Block and will proceed at once to fit it up for the reception of the necessary machinery for running the creamery which they will open here. They have numerous branch offices at various towns around here for which Correctionville makes a splendid central point, and with its raiload facilities and other encouragments has induced them to make a permanent investment in a brick building and enlarge the scope of the work they are already doing. It is a live, pushing firm and Mr. Ayres, its manager, proposes to give us a first class institution.

The people of Woodbury county

The donation held for the benefit of Rev. Whitney was a success. Everybody seemed to have a good time and about $34 was raised and presented.

Mr. Whitney preached his final sermon Sunday evening.

Rev. Johnson will be here September 6 and 7.

School will commence Nov. 1st.

J. M. Watson is clerking for J. C. Mills during his absence.

Fashion Notes.

Card cases, tiny reticules, and purses are fashionable, of electric blue morocco.

Pretty bracelets are composed of a fine gold circlet, with stones set in relief.

If a silk petticoat is worn, it must match the gown in hue as strictly as the stockings.

Black hats are allowable with any colored costume, and are more and more trimmed with green ribbon and plumes.

There is but little change in coiffures, the hair is combed up from the roots and twisted, but not so high as formerly.

Fancy jewels are much in favor for fastening bonnet strings. Pins for fastening hats or bonnets, tiny combs or hairpins, all are ornamented with diamonds or precious stones.

Stockings are now striped across—which, by the way, are not very becoming, as it makes the foot look large. These are for thread or filoselle ones; silk ones are plain, with embroidered clocks; and sometimes embroidered over the instep.

Low shoes of patent leather, with ribbons that tie on the instep, are very stylish; but must not be worn for promenading. Colored leather, ornamented with ribbons, are also worn in the house to match the costume.

Bodices of Henrietta cloth in light shades, close fitting, with short cutaway fronts over a vest of plaited silk, may be worn with any sort of skirt, and are well nigh as useful as the ever faithful jersey.—Godey's Lady's Book.

BOSANCO.—John Bosanco, son of Samuel and Elizabeth Bosanco, was born in Platville Wis., in September, 1852. In his later life he left Platville and went to Sioux City, Iowa, where he was married to Lucy Northway on August 21, 1883. To this union fourteen children were born, of whom seven have preceded their father in death.

Leaving Sioux City, they went to Minnesota, and in the year 1909 they came as early residents to Mott, N. Dak., where he has resided ever since. He passed away November 28.

Those left to mourn his departure are his wife, five sons and two daughters, two sisters, eleven grandchildren, and a host of friends.

Death of Captain Crowther.

From the El Paso (Tex.) Evening Tribune: Captain Oliver S. Crowther is dead! It is hard to realize, but he is no more. He is called home.

The news spread rapidly about the city last evening and occasioned profound sorrow among the people, for Capt. Crowther made every acquaintance a close friend. He treated all men well.

"O death where is thy sting?
O grave where is thy victory?"

About two weeks ago Captain Crowther was attacked with inflammatory rheumatism, a trouble that he has been subject to for many years. He was a hale and hearty man at the time of the attack, and, although he suffered greatly from rheumatics after he was taken down, he still retained his average weight and appearance up to a few days before his going. The trouble that he was having was not considered at all dangerous and he often said that he would be out again in a few days. But he never left his room but one day after he was taken down.

Deceased was born in Kenosha county, Wisconsin and was aged 44 years. He was many years in the Lake Superior region and was one of the first to go to Leadville, Colorado, when the excitemittee united in sending in to the Journal:

At a meeting of the business men of Correctionville the undersigned were appointed a committee, and given full charge of the proposition to secure a term of the district court at this place.

It was our desire to make no public announcement of the matter until it had been submitted to our members of the legislature, to the bar at Sioux City and to others who might be especially interested. Most of all did we wish to avoid a newspaper controversy based upon inaccurate and imperfect information. We have read the interview and letter from O. J. Blodgett, of this place, published in the Daily Journal, and wish to say that anything Mr. Blodgett has done or may do, is without our consent or approval. Mr. Blodgest was not asked to get the "consent" of the board of supervisors, neither was there, at that time a bill adopted by the committee; so information given by him was largely guess work.

It is not the desire of the people here to urge this matter for the especial benefit of the lawyers of Correctionville or of any other trade or profession as Mr. Blodgett's letter indicates. It is pelieved that there are just grounds, involving the good of the county in general, and of litigants and witnesses in this part of the county more particularly why the measure should become a law. We believe that these points can be easily established and that they constitute sufficient reasons. Other large counties in Iowa have been granted such conveniences for the transaction of legal business, and the arguments in their cases, and which were sufficient, will apply with still greater force to us. If public convenience justified such an act of the legislature in the case of Pottawattamie and Lee counties, the same public convenience demands it here.

Coming to personal and local considerations, it is not true that the measure will bring loss to the attorneys of Sioux City, on the contrary, it cannot help being the means of giving law firms a better acquaintance and consequently a larger practice.

It is to be hoped that Sioux City is

You AND THE WORLD AROUND YOU—

DELANO.—Bessie May (Bosanco) Delano was born in Correctionville, Iowa, October 2, 1885, and passed away September 11, 1962, in Olmsted Community Hospital, Rochester, Minnesota. She came to Minnesota in her early life. Except for about 16 years, when she lived in Mott, North Dakota, she resided in or near Dodge Center, Minnesota. She married Orville Delano in 1914. During the past 28 years she has cared for aged people in her home. She was active in this kind of service up to the time of her passing. She is survived by four brothers, one sister and five children, also by 14 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren. She was a devoted Seventh-day Adventist and a good worker in the cause of Christ. Her great desire was to see others accept the faith she so dearly loved. She will long be remembered and greatly missed by the members of the Dodge Center Church as well as by many friends and relatives. She awaits the call of the Saviour on the glad resurrection morning. Funeral services were held at the Dodge Center S. D. A. Church by the writer.

The Epidemic

This week seems to have been the high tide for the influenza in Regent in number of cases.

It has taken nearly all the Equity force off duty, closed the drug store and hotel, cut down the postal force and touched nearly every home. A. C. Goldtrap was very ill for a few days but is now gaining.

U. A. Amiot who conducted the local barber shop, was taken sick Friday and died Saturday morning. Joseph Bosanco, section foreman, died Wednesday after a few days illness. The little baby of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Luce developed pneumonia and passed away Wednesday night. We will try to give fuller details regarding the deceased next week.

There are still many calls for Dr. Hill from the surrounding country and some very serious cases.

Dorothy H. Bosanco, age 87, of Philip, SD, died Wednesday, July 20, 2011, at Golden Living Center, Salem.

Dorothy Helen Heire was born Feb. 5, 1924, on the family homestead northwest of Philip, to William and Minnie (Shoemaker) Heire. Her mother died in 1928 and her father married Ruby Searle in 1939. Dorothy married Robert Bosanco on June 4, 1946 at Sioux Falls.
They lived in Midland before moving to Rochester, MN, and then moved back to the Midland, Philip and Kadoka areas. Dorothy worked many jobs including cleaning motel rooms and homes, cooking and waitressing -- even into her late 70's.
She loved to play cards and you could always find her homemade popcorn balls when you went to her house. She had a love for dogs and had a couple special ones in her life.
In 2003, she moved into the Philip nursing home and in 2009 she moved to Golden Living Center, Salem. The most important thing to Dorothy was her family and her unconditional love for them. She will be missed the most by her children, grandchildren, and all who knew her.
PRECEDED IN DEATH BY: her parents William, Minnie and Ruby Heire; her husband Robert in 1975; three sons, Gary in 1973, William in 2006, and Thomas in 2010; and one brother Wallace Heire.

Message: Trying to locate any information regarding my husbands father. He was born Joseph Henry Bosanco, but name was changed when his mother remarried to Theodore Searle. He was born in ND, but lived in SD. He married Lois May in Oregon. He was born in 1918-22 and died in California in 1993. If anyone can assist me in my search, thanks in advance.

Message: Thanks Fayth, this may be part of my family. I understand that the family has contact with Minnesota. Also Hackin and Phillip Counties in the Dakotas. My grandparents lived in Mott S.D. There is sixty years difference, so maybe this Joseph is my dad's greatgrandfather, who knows. My e-mail is Robogrampy@aol.com and Gale's is Grammagcs@aol.com

Thanks for the information. The only other information I have is, Mott ~~S.D.~~ ND, I believe that is where dad was from, Hackin, and Philip Counties, and the city of Ottumwa. I Know that my grandfather Joseph H. Bosanco Sr. died in early November of 1918, about three weeks before my father was born and that my grandmother was in a town in N.D. when she gave birth. That city no longer exists. I also know that my grandmother had about 150 acres of land and her second husband, William Searle, had more land next to her's that was will to the Family after my grandmother died in the late 1970's or early 1980's. This land would have been near Mott, S.D. Her last husband was Bill Haerer and he died April 1970. The land may have belonged to him not William Searle. Thanks again.

BRAIN ABSCESS FATAL TO JOSEPH BOSANCO

Joseph Bosanco, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bosanco, Mott, died this morning while undergoing an operation for an abscess on the brain at a local hospital. The boy had been ill for about three weeks at his home and was in such a weakened condition that his system could not stand the operation.

The child is survived by his parents and three brothers and sisters. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but will undoubtedly be held the first part of the week from the Methodist Episcopal church at Mott.—Mandan Pioneer.

IN MEMORY

Joseph Henry Bosanco
Aged 4 Years, 10 Mos. 9 Days

He came to scatter sunshine,
In this dreary world.
He was so sunny, so divine,
That little nephew of mine.
His smiles we can never replace,
Nor his beaming little face.
But our hearts hold memories,
Far more precious than gold.
He called me his "Aunt Corrie,"
And his rosy cheeks I can yet behold.
His little yellow top,
His eager "Ya! Ya!"
Our little Jojo!
May we all be worthy to see him
Again some day,
In God's home far away.

As an apprentice, practice using the lever to remove treasure from the caves. Use the chart below to record your attempts. The numbers for the fulcrum position represent the positions of the fulcrum from left to right. When you first see the lever, it is displayed in position 1. William (Bill) Bosanco

William (Bill) Bosanco (b.1891) started working for the Milwaukee Railroad in 1911, some two years after his family had come to homestead in Hettinger County. He retired after 50 years of service in 1961 and still lives in Mott. Bill describes section work on the railroad in an interview conducted by Larry J. Sprunk on August 15, 1974.

LARRY: The railroad was only a few years old when you started on it, wasn't it?

BILL: The railroad was here in 1910![90]

LARRY: Ya, and you started on it in 1911?

BILL: 'Tis safe to say, 1911.

LARRY: Where did your area begin and end? How much territory did your section cover?

BILL: Well, I'll tell ya, it averaged — when I started out — a mile west of Mott and went 14 and a half miles east. [To] Four and a half miles east of Bentley was the first, and then they would stretch these sections sometimes. Give us more! As a rule more, and then they'd shoot us so many miles further west. Sometimes they'd take me off the west end and they'd put me east — average. I started out with 15 and wound up with 57 — 57 mile. Ya, when I quit I had a pickup. I had a pickup, see, and I had 57 miles. I went from New England to a mile west of Elgin; that was my territory.

LARRY: In the early days what would your section crew do on a average day?

BILL: Pickin' up track. Pickin' up — it was all rough there. Just layin'. I guess the Milwaukee laid it right on the ground. They went through some of the hills instead of fillin' up in their lower places. They just run — it was up one hill and down another — like that. And it was awful rough when I started there. Well, you can imagine how it would be, you know? They had untreated ties and they they didn't last very long. We started tiein' then before '20. We started puttin' in new ties; they had untreated ties. It was a mess! More derailments, had a lot of gumbo track, soft track.

LARRY: The grade wasn't too strong?

BILL: It was — well, they put it in. It was put in here; slopped in here, you might say. Now the NP had a standard grade, see? Right straight, but ours [went] up one hill and down another. And where they went into a cut, as a rule, they run into the gumbo. And that gumbo [is] bad when it gets wet and when it gets dry you can't hardly do anything with it, either! Bad stuff! And that's what you had to do — pick up track mostly. I didn't put in any ties when the ties started to go. They started to go around in 1918 or thereabouts.

LARRY: Bill, I don't know that much about railroad talk. When you say, "pick up ties," what do you mean?

BILL: Pick up track? Well, you raise the track up and poke dirt under it. See if there's a hole, well, you raise it up and you poke — you level it off. See, that's sand; you try to keep it level to keep the trains up! You have a level board you put across!

LARRY: There were a lot of derailments in those early years, Bill?

BILL: Oh, jeez, a lot of 'em!

LARRY: What caused them?

BILL: Rough track. Them cars were goin' like this, [a rocking motion] you know. You'd get in them engines or in the caboose and just look up the train and you'd see them cars goin' this way, one goin' that way, one this way. Sometimes they go over and when they came back they don't go back on the rail! We had a lot of derailments. I was out lots of times! I never had much trouble! My track — I worked! I don't know whether I done any more work, but I worked different! I had a way of doin' and I watched her close. As a rule, them days they didn't pay much and it was hard to get men to take interest in their work and they'd overlook. Well, they didn't care, see, and that's why they had so many of these here spills! 'Course [the section crews] wasn't all to blame 'cause the company never furnished us anything! We never got no gravel until up there in the '40's — a few cinders! It was the company's fault. They was to blame for it 'cause they didn't furnish nothin'! They didn't help us to keep it up.

LARRY: How many men were there on your section crew?

BILL: Well, I started out here with a handcart. And I used to have, oh, about eight in the summer; cut us down in the winter to one — one or two. I used to have seven, six, eight. They [the railroad company] used to ship 'em up every spring. They'd have on the passenger [trains] — they'd have a coach start on down the draw and each section would get so many men. They'd have a coach full of men! And they'd come up through — now like Mott! They'd come up here and they'd unload some of them men, and their baggage and all that stuff. Throw it off on the sidewalk! There was Bulgarians, Greeks, Italians! All kinds of foreigners! All foreigners and then they'd furnish them a bunkhouse and a stove, coal to cook with and that. And so on the average — they'd come out and stay all summer!

I used to get some darn good men. They'd come out here and stay all summer — work! And some of 'em would get sick and die or they'd go back — quit! They'd sign a contract to come out here the 1st of April as a rule and they were supposed to work until the 1st of October. Then they'd pass 'em back free to Chicago and all over, see?

LARRY: When you'd get bumped from being section leader or section chief . . .

BILL: Section foreman.

LARRY: Section foreman! I'm sorry!

BILL: You wanna get that "foreman!"

LARRY: Right! When you'd get bumped from being a section foreman, then you'd be section crew member, right?

BILL: Section laborer! I'd go back as a laborer, see. Ya, $.15 an hour!

LARRY: Is that what you started at?

BILL: Six days a week, ten hours a day, $1.50 a day!

LARRY: So you'd be making about $36 a month.

BILL: About that, ya.

LARRY: Was it hard work?

BILL: Oh, boy! I worked hard! A lot of 'em didn't — they worked accordin' to pay. See they — I'll tell ya a little thing happened one time. I had some Bulgarians and this one fella's name was Pete and he was cuttin' off his shovel. Now this happened — I've heard this told so many times since! I said, "What the hell you doin', Pete?" He says, "Railroad cut me, cut pay! I cut shovel!" See, they cut his salary!

Maybe, you see, they'd start to pay them laborers sometimes — oh, they'd give 'em maybe $.17, $.18 in the summer, see? Section foreman got $55 a month, no, $57.50 a month! That's what the fella got that run the section. The section laborers would get $.15 in the winter and in the summer they'd pay 'em $.17, sometimes $.18. They'd raise 'em a little and sometimes they'd cut 'em off to $.15. So this Bulgarian was cuttin' off this shovel and I asked him what he was doin' and he says, "Railroad cut me!" They'd cut him, see?

Well, anyway, it was no good! It was nothin'! Course, them times was hard, man! I tell ya you could buy things so much cheaper. A dollar in them days was quite a lot, you know, and work was hard to get! You couldn't get no work anyplace! Out on a farm you'd work for your board; that's about all that you'd get out of it! So them Bulgarians, they'd ship 'em up here and they'd give 'em a car and a stove and bunks and they would cook their own meals, see. And some of 'em lived pretty good and some of 'em didn't. They'd come out on a section and they'd have a hunk of flat pork and a piece o' bread, a onion, a piece o' garlic or somethin' like that put in there. That's right! They [were] tickled to death to get it, too! Hungry, boy, I'm tellin' ya!

So that's the way it was. Pretty rough! Boy, I'm tellin' you when I started in, it was rough! And we had a bunch of roadmasters — Irish, rougher than rough. Oh gee, they was tough! I tell ya, they was a tough bunch to work for, too. And they wasn't only in track; they was in train service! They was in everything! Everything that you wanted to get into; but, of course, the track was where you lost wages! It didn't pay anything! Where now, if you was a conductor, maybe you'd get, well, $150 a month. $200 would be big wages! And our roadmaster got $75 a month. We got $57.50 and he got $75. Well, they paid his expenses, though.

LARRY: How much responsibility did a roadmaster have?

BILL: Well, he had so much track, see? Now like ours — he had 134 mile and he was responsible for that rack. He used to run up and down or watch his track, watch the bad spots and all that stuff, see?

LARRY: Would he raise hell, Bill, if you had missed a spot?

BILL: He used to watch pretty close, ya! Ya, he used to get rough! Well, we had different roadmasters, too. We had several of 'em. Well, they didn't wanna see [the trains] go in the ditch see? If they got off too often, it didn't look good. Of course, they tried to keep 'em on and they'd ride over on the train, back and forth. They'd maybe hit a pretty rough spot and they'd wire ya, send ya a message or write ya or maybe they'd come out on a motorcar. After awhile they got a motorcar, and they used to run up and down. And us fellas we had to buy our own motorcar [and] our own engine!

LARRY: Is that right?

BILL: That's right! I paid $130 and some for a Fairmont engine and, of course, they furnished the pushcar. And I had to pay the freight from Minnesota! I had to buy it myself and all of 'em did it that had motorcars! That's what they done.

LARRY: What year was it that you got a motorcar for your crew?

BILL: Well, it must've been about '15, '16, in there somewhere.

LARRY: Oh? You used a handcar 'til then?

BILL: Started in on a handcar, ya. We used to go along the track 15 miles, that is, 14½ miles east, with a handcar. Pump a handcar up them hills and down like that. If we had a wind sometimes — the wind here, as a rule, comes from the northwest. But comin' in at night, boy, we'd come in abuckin' that wind, see? And sometimes we could just make it up them hills and, shoot, it was hard work! As a rule, if the wind's in your back, it ain't too bad. That's what we done; we had t' do it! We had to get on the track, stop now and then, and pick up a hole and so forth.

LARRY: Was that the kind of handcar that went . . .

BILL: That's right. It they'd [the crew men] all work and if they'd all pump, it'd make it easier; but some of 'em would pretend they was pumpin' and they wasn't! Oh, we used to have some great times! That damn handcar! Ya, then after awhile they got a . . . They come up with the inspection car one day and the superintendent was on. They used to come up with their own car with some backup handlers, you see. So the roadmaster got off [and] he says, "Bill, is that your engine?" I says, "Ya!" He says, "We're gonna send you a motorcar, a Waukesha, a big one." I was doin' a lot o' runnin' back and forth on these other sections. Well, anyway, they did! Then they took it away from me afterwards. Some other guy wanted it. Some bridge foreman, I guess, wanted it, had to have it 'cause he had more men. They did furnish me a smaller one! Well, they furnished us all motorcars then, smaller motorcars, and from then on they furnished gasoline and cars.

LARRY: Did it ever reach the point, Bill, where the railroad bought the engines for the sections? Did they finally reach the point where they would buy the engines if yours wore out?

BILL: No, no, they wouldn't! You had to keep orderin' parts! I used to order parts and the company paid it. That's all the parts that I kept . . . A lot of stuff I ordered for mine 'cause I was runnin' it a lot and the railroad paid it. I put that on my report; I'd make out a monthly report, send it in and they'd ship it and they'd pay it! Outside of buying the engine, why, they paid for all the parts, see? Oh, hell, that amounted to a lot o' money, you know?

LARRY: Bill, how did a section laborer's salary compare to somebody working in a store or working out on a farm or working in a lumberyard?

BILL: Well, a section laborer was at least about as small a pay as anybody could get! As a rule you could always get a job on a section, see, cause they was always short! [It was] hard to get men, they had to ship in them foreigners and lot of time them foreigners wouldn't come back and they'd be short o' men! You could always go and hire out to any of these sections 'cause they was short of men and 'cause the wages were small! That's the reason, see? $.15 an hour — well, you know that ain't much.

LARRY: What were the chances of working of your way up? How long would a man have to work on a section crew as a laborer before he would have a chance of becoming a foreman?

BILL: Oh, not very long! That is, I started out, altogether, eight different men! And most of the foremen, see, they wouldn't do it! They wouldn't do it; they didn't care nothin' about [their men] see. If they [the men] wanted t' work, alright. If they didn't, get off, see! It didn't pay enough and most of [the men] didn't want to take it up anyway! See they didn't care much about it, but in later years when they paid more I got 'em to stay. I kept 'em 'til I got 'em a section, see? I done that. I got eight of 'em, I think, altogether. Course, it started to pay better. There's more money in it [now] and they stuck with it, but before that there was nothin' in it so they didn't care about it. You know, as I say, if I'd o' went into anything different, I'd of made more money.

LARRY: Would the farmers fight over your . . .

BILL: Oh, ya, we had a lot o' scraps over them ties! Some them there fellas . . . I'll tell you, I always give 'em to the farmers for plowing fireguards. We had a lot o' trouble with fireguards. Fires! I used to get them farmers lined up and get them to haul them ties! They all wanted them ties in them days cause there wasn't no wood, see? And I used to get 'em lined up and tell 'em to haul them ties if they would plow fireguards under 'em. Well, I used to get a lot of fireguards plowed. That done a lot o' good for the company.

I used to fight for them fireguards! I know I was up this side of Regent one time; they'd [the railroad] shot me west of Regent. Cut off part of me here on the east end and shot me west of Regent. There was a banker up here at Regent. His name was [H.C.] Bowers and he had some land this side o' Bentley or this side o' Regent. And I caught him out there one day. I didn't know who he was, see, and I caught him out there loadin' up ties and I had already told that farmer along the line there that he could have 'em. So I caught him with a big load and I made him unload it! I didn't know that he was a banker in Regent, no! And he hollered! Oh, he was madder than a wet hen, you know? So finally he unloaded 'em! Sure they had some scraps over 'em. They was good only for wood. If there was farmer that done a pretty good job of plowin' a fireguard, I'd maybe put him out three or four pretty good ones for corner posts. I used to work with them and we got along fine, you know, I and the farmers. Ya, and thousands of them ties! Boy, oh, boy, we sure cleaned out a lot of 'em!

LARRY: How many would you change in a year?

BILL: Well, it varied, of course. Some years — well, it didn't start out too bad, maybe 4,000, maybe 3,500, 4,000, somethin' like that. Then the longer them there ties laid, the worse they got! You'd have to keep puttin' more and more and more. Well, there's about 18 ties in a rail. A rail is 33 feet and there's about from 18 to 20 ties in a rail, see? So they used to — especially when they started to furnish them treated ties — want us to put two of them together. If you had three, four ties, you see, you put one on each side of your one poor tie. You know, scatter 'em out! If they'd catch ya puttin' in four or five together, they'd fire ya! Oh, they was stricter than the devil!

LARRY: Why? Were the ties more expensive?

BILL: Well, they didn't have enough! See, they had to string 'em out.

Oh, I used to do — oh, some places right close to the stockyard where [the ties] was pretty well buried in sand, I used to put in a whole pile. I used to put 'em in and cover 'em up with sand and they never saw 'em!

I put under thousands of grain doors in my day on the railroad! Rough track! I'd have a hole I couldn't hold; I'd put some grain doors under it. Ya, that's the way I kept 'em [the trains] on. I'd steal these doors from the agent! The depot agent had to keep track of 'em and I'd take them doors. Sneak in there with a pushcar and I'd get a whole load of doors and I'd go out there and I'd fix up some of them holes. Thousands of 'em! ah, hell! Finally there was an old roadmaster come over here off the main line. He was rough! He says to me, "Bill," he says, "do you put under grain doors?" I says, "N-no, I never put 'em under." He says, "If I catch you doin' it, I'll fire ya. You're done!" I says, "Don't worry now! I ain't gonna." I put 'em in right along; he didn' know it!

Service of Remembrance for Mildred O. "Midge" Hagler, 89, of Mott, ND will be Saturday, June 18, 2005 at the Mott Evangelical Community Church in Mott, ND at 2:00 p.m. Rev. Brian Wright will officiate and burial will follow at the Sunnyslope Cemetery in Mott. Visitation will be one hour prior to the service at the church on Saturday afternoon.

MILDRED OLIVE "Midge" BOSANCO was born in rural Hettinger County, ND to William and Julia (Robinson) Bosanco on April 20, 1916. She grew up and was educated in Mott, ND. As a young girl, she enjoyed spending time with her Aunt and Uncle, Harold and Gladys Emery on their farm.

On November 1, 1932 she married Roy Hagler at the Mott Methodist Church. They farmed with Roy's parents, Craig and Nora Hagler, twelve miles south of Mott. Mildred enjoyed gardening, crocheting and belonged to the Homemakers Club. Mildred was a lifelong member of the Methodist and Evangelical Community Churches. She sang in the choir and served on several church committees.

In 1967 Mildred and Roy moved their farm home into Mott and Mildred worked as a waitress for Joe Hirsch and as a clerk for Hanson Clothing Store. Roy Hagler died on October 1, 1993 and in May of 1994, Mildred entered the Good Samaritan Nursing Center in Mott, where she passed away on June 16, 2005.

She is survived by her sons, Donald (Alvina) Hagler, of Hazen, ND, Arlin Hagler and special friend Patty Spurlock, of Sacramento, CA and Gary (Margaret) Hagler, of Cando, ND; nine grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren. Preceding Mildred in death were her parents, her husband Roy Hagler, two brothers and one grandson.

Fayth,

Dave was born in 1945, and his mother is Jean Olcott who grew up in Mott. Her dad was a manager for NW Bell. We'll try to figure out who Lenora is.

Do you know where in SW Wisconsin John A. was born? My roots are also there.

I've passed your e-mail on to Dave's brother, Mark, who lives in Wichita KS. He will get a hold of you in a few days when he returns to KS.

By the way, my wife has relatives in Hettinger & Regent. "Strand" is one name; the other may be "Peterson."

Thanks!

Fayth,

Here's a start to Dave's genealogy.

He was born 20 Nov 1945. Married Jean ?. Had two children, Tami & Scott. Divorced. Remarried Jill Gunderson Lamont (b. 05 May 1957). Jill has a son from her first marriage, Tyler. I'll get you these birthdates.

Dave is a retired CPA from the State of North Dakota. He owns two Taco John's restaurants, in Wahpeton ND & Thief River Falls MN. He enjoys sailing on the Lake of the Woods and watching movies (with me). He has one brother, Mark (b. 1951) in Wichita KS.

I'm trying to spark Dave's interest in genealogy. I have a feeling he never clicked with his dad, but I could be wrong.

Thank you again for all your help!

--Carl

Subject: Re: Obituary

I found the obituary for James Q. BoSanco in the Walla Walla Union Bulletin Sunday February 27, 1972 page 5

J.Q. BoSanco

James Q. BoSanco, 74, of 518 Whitman Drive, College Place, died Friday at a local hospital following a lengthy illness.

Born Jan. 2, 1898, in Boone, Iowa, he moved with his parents, John and Lucy BoSanco, to Mott, N. Dak. where he attended elementary and high school. After completing barbering school in Bismark, N. Dak., he was engaged in a beauty shop and barbering business in Mott for several years. BoSanco served locally in the National Guard during 1918.

In 1935 he moved with his family to Yakima and resumed barbering. He owned a shop there for 15 years before coming to College Place 20 years ago. In College Place, BoSanco owned and operated his own barber business 16 years. He was a member of the College Place (Village) Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Jean, at the home; a son, Quentin B. BoSanco of Seattle; two daughters, Mrs. Herbert (LaVonne) Will of Spokane, and Mrs. James (Myleen) McCulloch of Bakersfield, Calif.; a step-daughter, Mrs. Merle (Darlene) Goble of Lowden; a sister, Mrs. Charles (Bonnie) Pickett of San Jose, Calif.; two brothers, William BoSanco of Mott, N. Dak., and Walter BoSanco of Dodge Center, Minn. He is also survived by 10 grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Monday in the College Place Seventh-day Adventist Church, 12th and Larch, with Elder William L. Woodruff officiating. Vault interment will follow in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

A couple of side notes. A photo of James BoSanco is at the top of the obituary. It is a bit smudgy but he would be recognizable. Let me know if you'd like a mailed copy of the obituary. Secondly, Mt. Hope Cemetery is in College Place, WA.

Hope this helps, Bob Bruce

We have decided as a classroom to have secret valentines this year. Each student and teacher has chosen another at random to surprise each day with special valentines and clues.

We have discussed and agreed upon these guidelines:

♡ we value handmade surprises and agree that we don't need to spend any money on secret valentines.

♡ if we choose to spend money, we set a maximum limit of $5 for the week.

♡ we will tell no one (except parents and maybe one person from another room) who our secret valentine is.

In addition, on Friday we'll have a classwide valentine exchange. Everyone is invited to participate. We ask that if you do participate that you bring a valentine for each class member so that everyone feels included.

Here is a class list to aid in your adressing process.

I'm trying to find the names of the kids labeled "unsure" so when I find that I will tell you as soon as possible. We had NO clue that my grandfather had 10 other siblings! My aunt and my own father didn't even know. My grandfather was a very quiet man who kept to himself I am told. He died before I was born, so I didn't know him. Now, I will find out tomorrow the anniversay and birthplace info on some of these people. Do you have information on the 10 siblings? If so I would absolutely love it! I have a lil more information for you again...

Theodore and Lillian met in San Diego, CA while Ted was a merchant marine.

They lived in California and Oregon for the most part. Not sure of marriage date. Possibly recorded in San Diego County.
Eileen Bosanco Olson was born in Portland, OR
Ted was born in Modesto, CA
Kathleen was born in Portland, OR

If you need spouses names and all I will give that to you as well. I was also wondering, I'm guessing we're related to right? I was wondering how too. :) I think this is neat. Thank you so much for helping, we will help you as much as possible. So far, my cousin Sherry and my Aunt Eileen are supplying me with this information. I will do my best! God Bless!

Hi! I'm Krystle Bosanco, I'm 17 and I just crossed your website and it's pretty neat! I'm trying to find more information on my dad's side of the family. My dad was Theodore Earl Bosanco, JR and he was born October 9, 1950 in Modesto, California. He was the youngest of five.
David Richard Bosanco July 4, 1941
Stanley Wayne Bosanco April 1942 deceased
Eileen Ann Olson July 24, 1947
Kathy Ellen Schnarr January 4, 1945 or 46 widow

There mother (my grandma) was Lilian Emma Grayson born April 21, 1922 in Montana. We're all from California but now either live in Illinois except for my uncle Dave, he's in Oregon. That prolly won't help too much, but I think it's so cool that this website exists. I will try to find more information for you. Thank you much. :)

I don't have much information but my grandfather is a Bosanco from South Dakota USA. His name was Theodore and he married Lillian Emma Grayson. I think they were born in the early 1900's he died in 1971 and she died in 1989, I think. I am new to this and I am doing all that I can to learn how to look up this stuff. I hope this small info. helps. If you would like to email me and let me in on some pointers on how to do this genealogy please feel free to do so.
Thank you for your time and consideration,

Well, I may have something for you to look for, but first, a little about our friends, the Bosancos. The son (age 65) is named Dave, and his father (now dead) was Ted. I know that Dave has a sister back east somewhere, but know little more. I think they came to Polk Co. in the late 1950s or early 1960s from California. Dave grew up around the Clear Lake area in northern California, just north of the Sonoma Valley area. Does any of that sound familiar?

Walter and June Bosanco, members of the Dodge Center church celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on Sunday, February 7, 1999. A reception was organized by their daughter Colleen Frank of Chattanooga, Tennessee, and son Tom Bosanco of Des Moines, Iowa. Their daughter, Martha Kiogore, of Heavener, Oklahoma, was unable to attend due to being hospitalized at the time of the celebration. A crystal plate embossed with the first names of their children, their nine grandchildren and sixteen greatgrandchildren was given to the couple as a keepsake of this milestone in their lives.
